

Center for Slavic and East European Studies

Newsletter

372 Stephens Hall
University of California
Berkeley, CA 94720
642-3230

JANUARY 1985

Happy New Year!

BAG LUNCHES

As part of our continuing program of speakers, the Center will sponsor a series of Wednesday bag lunch lecture programs at noon in 442 Stephens Hall, one floor above the Center offices. These regular talks will be supplemented by occasional public lectures and bag lunches, which will be announced in the Newsletter and Update. In this series, we encourage presentations of a varied and often informal nature. Please invite your friends and note the following bag lunch dates planned for this spring:

January 23
February 6
February 20
March 6
March 20
April 3
April 17
May 1

Information on topics and speakers will be given in the Calendar of Events section of our Newsletter and in the Calendar Update. In addition to the above dates, we have talks tentatively scheduled for 25 and 28 January; watch for speakers, times and topics in the January Calendar Update.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Mon. Jan. 14     FILMS: The Shadow (Cien), (Poland, 1956); and Night Train (Pociąg),
PFA                (Poland, 1959); both directed by Jerzy Kawalerowicz, in Polish with 7:30 and 9:15     English titles; 35mm.

Mon. Jan. 21     FILM: Austeria, Jerzy Kawalerowicz, (Poland, 1982); in Polish with PFA                English titles; 35mm.
8:35

SLAVIC CENTER READING ROOM - 340 Stephens Hall

Canadian Slavonic Papers	1984 #2-3	Polish Review	1984 #3
Current Digest of the Soviet Press	1984 #43	Revue des Etudes Slaves	1984 #2
East European Quarterly	1984 #2	Russian History	1983 #2
FBIS - East Europe	1984 #237	Russian Review	1984 #1
FBIS - Soviet Union	1984 #237	Slavic & East European Journal	1984 #3
Jahrbucher fur Geschichte Osteuropa	1984 #1	Slavic Review	1984 Fall
Kommunist	1984 #17	Soviet Studies	1984 #4
Kritika	1983 #2	Soviet Union/Union Soviétique	1984 #1
Kultura	1984 #10	Studies in Comp. Communism	1984 #2
Osteuropa	1984 #10

FELLOWSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT, STUDY/TRAVEL

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES (NEH) offers small grants of $500 for Travel to Collections for research in libraries, archives, museums, etc. in North America and Western Europe. Preference given to scholars who have no other source of funding for the proposed trip. Candidates for degrees and persons seeking support for work leading to degrees are ineligible. Sponsored Projects Office has announcement; call Paula Burkhart, 2-8122. Deadline: 15 January 1985 (and 15 September 1985, 15 January 1986.)

WENNER-GREN FOUNDATION FOR ANTHROPOLOGICAL RESEARCH offers support in varying amounts for research in all branches of anthropology and in disciplines related to the sciences of man. Applications must be made four months prior to start of project. Send description of project for application to the Foundation, 1865 Broadway, New York, NY 10023. Deadline: 1 February 1985.

PRESIDENT'S FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM at all nine University of California campuses offers post-doctoral fellowships of $21,00 for one year and dissertation year fellowships of $13,500 to women and minority students committed to careers in University teaching and research, and who show promise for tenure-track appointments at the University of California. For 1985-86, preference will be given to applicants in the fields of business, computer and mathematical sciences, engineering, life sciences, and physical sciences. For information and application materials: President's Fellowship Program, Office of the President, University of California, 191 University Hall, Berkeley, CA 94720. Deadline (for receipt of all materials) 1 February 1985.

SUMMER RESEARCH SUPPORT is offered by the Indiana University-Bloomington Russian and East European Institute for those who would not otherwise have access to the resources at Indiana University. The Teaching Fellow award: for regular faculty at an accredited post-secondary institution to improve teaching skills and content for courses in the Russian/East European field taught at his/her school. Submit proposed course of independent study, list of courses taught or planned in connection with this award, current curriculum vitae, and detailed budget for research period. The Research Fellow award: proposals invited from specialists in business, government, and academia, and from those without current professional affiliation, in particular from those with no current and convenient access to a major research library. Send brief description of the proposed research, indicating specific resources at IU that relate to the project, a current c.v. (including language competence), and a detailed budget. Maximum award is $2,000. Room and board figured at $200 per week (based on campus dormitory). Contact: Karen S. Niggle, Russian and East European Institute, Ballantine Hall 565, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405; 812/335-7309. Deadline: 1 February 1985.

RFE/FL SUMMER INTERNSHIPS available to students of Soviet and East European affairs, for 8 to 12 week periods from June through September 1985, in Munich, W. Germany. Interns will work on production of either one substantial paper or several short topical papers. Further details available for reading at the Center. Send applications to: Mr. Richard Weist, Asst. Director of Personnel, RFE/RL, Inc. (Munich) at: 1201 Connecticut Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20036, or Oettingenstrasse 67, D-8000 Munich 22, West Germany. Deadline: 15 February 1985.

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF RUSSIAN (ACTR) seeks a Resident Director for its 1985-86 semester programs at the Pushkin Institute in Moscow. Must be fluent in Russian, have administrative or group experience in the USSR, with a PhD in Slavic area and/or university faculty standing. All expenses paid, plus honorarium. Apply to: D.E. Davidson, Russian Dept., Bryn Mawr C, 815 New Guelph Rd., Bryn Mawr, PA 19010. Deadline: 15 February 1985.

CONSORTIUM FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CID), a non-profit corporation of 11 major western universities, seeks an executive director. Master's degree required, doctorate preferred, with background in international projects and overseas experience. Contact: Dr. Doyle J. Matthews, Chairman, CID Board of Trustees, Utah State University, UMC 48 Logan, UT 84322. Deadline: 15 February 1985.

FELLOWSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT, STUDY/TRAVEL (cont.)

VISITING LECTURER sought by Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, University of California, Berkeley, for 1985-86, renewable to four years. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Requires extensive teaching experience at university level, at least in part in U.S. institutions; near-native command of Russian and English. To teach intermediate and advanced Russian grammar, composition, and conversation. Send c.v., names of three references to: Prof. J. Grossman, Chair, Dept. of Slavic Languages and Literatures, University of California, Berkeley, Berkeley, CA 94720. AA/EOE. Deadline: 15 February 1985.

INSTITUTE ON GLOBAL CONFLICT AND COOPERATION announces its 1985 Summer Seminar on Global Security and Arms Control, to be held Sunday 23 June through Wednesday 3 July, at the University of California, Irvine. The program aims to prepare faculty-in-residence and graduate students to teach in the areas of international security, peace, and arms control. Those with institutional affiliations in the western U.S., from New Mexico to Montana west to Alaska and Hawaii, may apply. Participants will receive free room and board, travel expenses, and a stipend, and will be expected to stay for the entire period, and to live in the dormitory. Send a brief c.v., and one sheet of paper with name, address, office and home telephone numbers, academic title (graduate students must submit letter from faculty sponsor), academic discipline, related courses taught (when, how often, lecture or seminar, undergrad/grad) or taken, related courses you plan to teach. Contact: Prof. Jon Lawrence, Dept. of Physics, School of Physical Sciences, University of California, Irvine, CA 92717. For information, call 714/856-5580, 714/856-6472, or (messages) 714/856-6911. Deadline: 21 February 1985.

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES announces the January - December 1986 Soviet and East European Exchange Programs for scientific exchange with the Academies of Sciences of the USSR, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, the German Democratic Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Romania, and with the Council of Academies of Yugoslavia. These programs cover the natural, mathematical, non-patient-oriented medical, engineering, and precise social and behavioral sciences. Visits are for the purpose of doing research in the host country. For further information contact the Academy at: Section on USSR & Eastern Europe, Office of International Affairs, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, Washington, DC 20418; 202/334-2644. Deadline: 28 February 1985 (postmark).

MELLON EMIGRE RETRAINING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM at the Center for Russian and East European Studies, University of Michigan, offers a one-year renewable fellowship and teaching assistance grant of $6,500 plus tuition for graduate work at the University of Michigan in any discipline. The program aims to assist in retraining of recent arrivals from East Europe or the Soviet Union who plan to pursue careers in this country. Preference given to applicants who will pursue careers related to the Soviet Union and East Europe, and in the social or natural sciences, but such interests are not condition for appointment. Submit full c.v., copy of application to Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies at the U of Michigan, brief description of career goals and interests; if possible, three letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the Center; and copies of diplomas or other credentials. Send to: Student Services, CREES, University of Michigan, 208 Lane Hall, Ann Arbor, MI 48109. Deadline: 1 March 1985.

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF LEARNED SOCIETIES (ACLS) offers Travel Grants for Humanists to International Meetings Abroad. Requests for applications should include name, dates, place, and sponsorship of meeting; brief description of applicants scholarly interests and proposed role in the meeting. Send requests to Travel Grant Office, ACLS, 228 East 45th St., New York, NY 20027. Completed application forms for meetings July-October 1985, deadline: 1 March 1985.

NEH, Division of Research Programs, offers grants for collaborative or coordinated research projects up to three years in duration in the humanities, including archaeology and regional studies. SPO has guidelines. Contact: Project Research - Gary Messinger and David Wise, 202/786-0207; Archaeological Projects - Eugene Sterud, 202/786-0207. Deadline: 1 March 1985.

-late entry- MELLON POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS Cornell University offers five 2-year teaching/research fellowships in 13 areas of the humanities; $18,000/year; begin Sept. 1985; must have completed Ph.D. after June 1980 and before deadline. Contact A. Geske, Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships, A.D. White House, Cornell U, Ithaca, NY 14853. Deadline: 15 February 1985.

Center for Slavic and East European Studies
University of California
372 Stephens Hall
Berkeley, CA 94720
IV 03